

hemeltoday

brought to you by The Gazette

Breathtaking dance

Tring Park dance show.

CLASSICAL displays of ballet, breathtaking contemporary dance and powerful jazz dance, Tring Park School's forthcoming Dance Show should not be missed.

The 14 to 19-year-old students from the top performing arts school will take to its Markova Theatre stage, in the school grounds, on Mansion Drive, Tring, on March 19, 20, 24, 25 and 26 at 7.30pm.

The gifted dancers will also perform at

London's The Shaw Theatre, in Euston Road, on Saturday, March 21.

It will be an opportunity to spot some stars of the future as the school has a vast alumni of past students treading the boards on the West End stage, acting and dancing with acclaimed dance companies, including The Royal Ballet and The New York Ballet.

The production combines youthful energy with elegance and virtuosic athleticism. Its varied and spectacular running order will include two repertoire pieces; interpretations of Northern Ballet's Dracula and Envelope, a satiric masterpiece. Tickets for the Markova Theatre shows are available by calling 01442 824255 and tickets for the London Gala night are available from The Shaw Theatre Box Office on 0871 594 3123 or at www.theshawtheatre.com

