

Berkhamsted EXCLUSIVE™

September 2009

EDUCATION | HEALTH | BEAUTY | PROPERTY | HOMES & INTERIORS | FOOD | FASHION

Free

Autumn Fashion

TRING PARK STUDENTS SET FOR STARDOM

Three student friends are set for stardom after securing places in top productions recently. All three have spent the past few years training to be professional performers at Tring Park School for the Performing Arts and are the latest success stories to emerge from the school.

Seventeen-year-old Lucy Martin has won a place in the West End musical 'Dirty Dancing'. She is now being put forward for other auditions as well as planning out her career with the school.

Lucy comments "I feel very lucky to be doing something I really enjoy and in such a great school as Tring Park."

Eighteen-year-old Jack Wilcox has been at Tring Park since he was 11 and has just landed a part in High School Musical 2.

Jack comments "I decided the best way to become a professional dancer was to enrol in Tring Park. I'm absolutely thrilled to have been picked for High School Musical 2."

Eighteen-year-old Will Bozier joined Tring Park at the age of ten. Following his performance as 'Moose' in 'Crazy For You', Will was approached, and is now represented by, Michael Garrett of Global Artists.

Will comments "I feel lucky that I got into such a specialist school as Tring Park. Not only do they encourage you to concentrate on your academic studies, they give you the support and inspiration to focus on your talents."

Principal, Stefan Anderson, says "Tring Park has earned a reputation for developing talented young performers, many of whom are now with leading companies. We are extremely proud of Lucy Martin, Will Bozier and Jack Wilcox and will be watching their careers with great interest."

Tring Park's open day will be on 16th & 17th October.

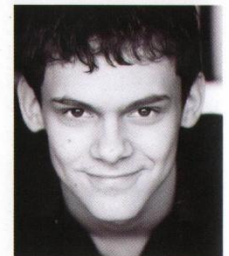

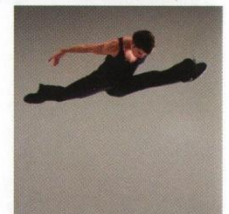

OPEN DAY
OCTOBER 16th & 17th 2009

Unique creative learning environment for young people with outstanding talent in Dance, Drama, Musical Theatre and Music.

Five academic education to GCSE and A

Tring Park
Specialist School for the Performing Arts
Formerly known as Arts Educational School, Tring Park

TRING PARK STUDENTS SET FOR STARDOM

Three student friends are set for stardom after securing places in top productions recently. All three have spent the past few years training to be professional performers at Tring Park School for the Performing Arts and are the latest success stories to emerge from the school.

Seventeen-year-old Lucy Martin has won a place in the West End musical 'Dirty Dancing'. She is now being put forward for other auditions as well as planning out her career with the school.

Lucy comments "I feel very lucky to be doing something I really enjoy and in such a great school as Tring Park."

Eighteen-year-old Jack Wilcox has been at Tring Park since he was 11 and has just landed a part in High School Musical 2.

Jack comments "I decided the best way to become a professional dancer was to enrol in Tring Park. I'm absolutely thrilled to have been picked for High School Musical 2."

Eighteen-year-old Will Bozier joined Tring Park at the age of ten. Following his performance as 'Moose' in 'Crazy For You', Will was approached, and is now represented by, Michael Garrett of Global Artists.

Will comments "I feel lucky that I got into such a specialist school as Tring Park. Not only do they encourage you to concentrate on your academic studies, they give you the support and inspiration to focus on your talents."

Principal, Stefan Anderson, says "Tring Park has earned a reputation for developing talented young performers, many of whom are now with leading companies. We are extremely proud of Lucy Martin, Will Bozier and Jack Wilcox and will be watching their careers with great interest."

Tring Park's open day will be on 16th & 17th October.