

Arts school unveils a perfect pass rate

TRING Park School for the Performing Arts said it was delighted to announce outstanding A level results in 2009 with 67.7 per cent of students achieving A and B grades.

This represents an increase of 6.7 per cent on 2008, the second highest score the school has ever achieved.

Overall 100 per cent of students passed.

There were a number of individual students who achieved the highest level in all of their qualifications. They included Frances Ardley who achieved four As in her chosen subjects – Biology, Dance, Maths and further Maths.

Adele Pope achieved three As in her chosen subjects – Biology, Chemistry and Maths whilst Imogen Taylor achieved three As in her chosen subjects – Biology, Chemistry and Maths.

Tring Park School for the Performing Arts principal, Stefan Anderson, said: "We are incredibly pleased with the results today, which is a tribute to the students who are expected to combine theatre studies with conventional studies as well as training for productions."