

Tring Success in Spoleto

► Ten dancers from Tring Park School for the Performing Arts attended the International Dance Competition in Spoleto, Italy, during the Easter break. Four of them passed the preliminary rounds to get through to the final. Jack Wilcox was awarded second place as classical soloist (no first place was awarded) with Sam Chung in third place. Each of them received prize money. Travis Clausen-Knight came second in the contemporary soloist section with his own choreography and was offered a scholarship for the summer school at the Rosella Hightower Centre in Cannes, France.
