

HOLIDAY COURSE FAQ SHEET

DAY AND WEEKEND COURSES

- All booking is via the website only.
- Please be aware that pressing the 'Submit Form' button on any booking page sends all your details directly to us via email. In order to create a smooth booking process please complete the form and related payment at the same time. In the event of difficulties with PayPal please email holidaycourses@tringpark.com to arrange payment. N.B. places are not secured until payment has been received.
- Courses will close on the advertised closing date. Each course page states the closing date related to that course.
- Please note that you will receive all information for the day or weekend a week before the course. This will come to you via the email address submitted on the online booking form. This will include details of required clothing and footwear.
- Registration begins at 9.30am, and the gates will be open 15 minutes prior. In order to ensure that staff are in place to look after participants please do not arrive to register before this time.
- Lunch is not provided. Snacks and cordial are provided throughout the day. Please note that we are a nut free school, therefore no nut products are permitted on site
- Class groups are allocated via the information on the application form so please ensure that you are as accurate as possible when applying. Great care is taken to place each participant in the correct group for the day. Please endeavour to include relevant experience, grades and exam boards where possible.
- The arrangements for watching work undertaken on each course may vary. Some courses prepare a short showing of work for the end of the day and our studios allow easy observation for those that do not.
- Participants are expected to attend both days when attending a weekend course.
